EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 1029

WHEREAS the State of Mississippi is expected to be adversely affected by Hurricane Ida which may include sheltering of evacuees from other states, damaging winds, severe thunderstorms, flooding, and possible tornadoes which are expected to occur over wide areas of Mississippi; and state assistance will be necessary to support local government response and recovery efforts; and

WHEREAS, civil authorities will require support from Mississippi National Guard to cope with said emergency:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Phil Bryant, Lieutenant Governor of the State of Mississippi, acting as Governor of the State of Mississippi due to the temporary absence of Governor Haley Barbour from the boundaries of the State of Mississippi and pursuant to the authority vested in me in Article Five, Section 131 of the Mississippi Constitution of 1890 and Sections 119 and 217, Mississippi Constitution of 1890, and Sections 7-1-5, 33-7-301, 33-7-305, Mississippi Code of 1972, do hereby direct Major General William Freeman, Adjutant General of the Mississippi Guard, to order out such officers and enlisted personnel of the Mississippi Guard as he deems necessary and requisite and for such duration as he deems appropriate to assist state and local civil authorities. Major General Freeman will be in direct Command of the troops ordered to active duty and will use such equipment as may be found necessary in his opinion to accomplish the support mission of the National Guard troops.

The members of the Mississippi National Guard ordered to active duty under the provisions of this Order shall be subject to the provisions, privileges, and immunities of the State of Mississippi governing the National Guard.

FURTHER, the pay and expenses of the troops ordered to State Active Duty shall be paid as provided in Sections 33-7-313, 33-7-315 and 33-9-15. All costs will be reimbursed as authorized by Section 33-15-307 (4)(g), the Mississippi Emergency Act of 1995, Mississippi Code of 1972, as amended.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Mississippi to be affixed.

DONE in the City of Jackson, this the ninth day of November in the year of our Lord, two thousand and nine, and of the Independence of the United States of America, the two hundred and thirty-fourth.

A Proclamation

WHEREAS, the National Weather Service and National Hurricane Center predictions show the State of Mississippi may be severely affected by Hurricane Ida, which may include sheltering of evacuees from other states, damaging winds, severe thunderstorms, flooding, and possible tornadoes and state assistance will be necessary to support local government response and recovery efforts; and

WHEREAS, this storm system is expected to cause damage to homes, businesses, private and public property, and threaten the safety of citizens of the State of Mississippi; and

WHEREAS, in consideration of the health and safety of the residents and the protection of their property within the affected areas, and in the public interest, all steps should be taken to protect people and property

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Phil Bryant, Lieutenant Governor of the State of Mississippi, acting as Governor of the State of Mississippi, due to the temporary absence of Governor Haley Barbour from the boundaries of the State of Mississippi and pursuant to the authority vested in me under Article Five, Section 131 of the Mississippi Constitution of 1890 and pursuant to the authority vested in me under the Mississippi Emergency Management Law, including Section 33-15-11(b)(17), Mississippi Code of 1972, as amended, and in the public interest and for the general welfare, do hereby proclaim a State of Emergency to exist in the areas of the State of Mississippi affected by this tropical severe weather system. The provisions of this proclamation shall exist and remain in effect until such time as this threat to public safety shall cease to exist as prescribed in Section 33-15-11(b)(17), Mississippi Code of 1972, as amended.

FURTHER, all agencies of the State of Mississippi shall discharge their emergency responsibilities as deemed necessary as set forth in the State of Mississippi Comprehensive Emergency Management Plan.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Mississippi to be affixed.

DONE in the City of Jackson, on the ninth day of November in the year of our Lord, two thousand and nine, and of the Independence of the United States of America, the two hundred and thirty-fourth.
